• San Francisco based KeepTruckin Inc., a transportation technology company, will create 385 jobs in Nashville during the next three years. KeepTruckin, a Google Ventures-backed startup founded in 2013, develops trucking fleet management solutions that improve operational efficiency safety. Since it began, the company has built a network of more than 500,000 connected drivers. The company is housed in the L&C Tower.

• One Nashville Place, the 24-story tower that bears WeWork and Regions Bank logos, sold to Unico Properties, a Seattle-based real-estate investment firm, for $139.5 million.

• The UBS Tower, which is 602,000 SF, is on the market as well as the Nashville City Center, with more than 480,000 SF and 27-stories. Also, the 20-story building located at 414 Union Street with 430,000 SF is on the market. In the last nine months, five of downtown’s eight largest office towers have either sold or been marketed for sale.

• MarketStreet Enterprises released plans for a five-story neo-traditional mixed-use building to be located at 333 11th Avenue South. Three Thirty-Three will have approximately 69,000 SF of office space, 11,000 SF of ground level retail space and will include a small public green space. A late 2019 opening is scheduled.

• Endeavor Real Estate broke ground on a 20-story office building at 1222 Demonbreun Street, which will contain 324,000 SF of office space and ground floor retail. Slated opening of the building is June 2020.

• The nation’s fifth-largest accounting firm, RSM, plans to have a large presence in downtown Nashville and employee at least 125 people by 2022, with the goal of having 200 people overall. The current team of 25 is working out of a coworking space within SoBro’s 222 2nd Avenue South tower.

• AllianceBernstein, announced that it had commitments from 120 employees to come to Nashville over the next year as a part of its first wave of relocations. Fifteen employees have already relocated. The company is slated to create 1,050 jobs downtown, and the majority will be in finance, IT, operations, compliance and auditing. AllianceBernstein has signed a lease to occupy space in 501 Commerce, a 25-story tower that is part of the Fifth + Broadway.

• Coworking spaces in downtown Nashville make up 2% of the downtown office inventory, yet they are the 2nd largest employer, behind the State of TN. There are currently 14 coworking office spaces in downtown, with 2,982 employees and 820 businesses.

*As of December 2017, all office and retail statistics are from CoStar commercial real estate database. Numbers may vary from previous quarterly reports.

Total # of Rooms Under Construction: 3,323

- There are 12 hotels with owner/developers actively planning - representing over 2,826 additional rooms.

- Rutledge Hill-based hotel Bode Nashville opened in what was formerly Howell Park condominiums at 401 2nd Avenue South. Bode features single rooms and apartment-style suites, offering 70 units. This is the first Bode, with additional sister operations slated for Chattanooga (March 2019 opening), Palm Springs, CA; Indian Wells, CA; and Orange County, CA.

- New dual-and triple-branded hotels are transforming the hospitality landscape across the nation. By sharing the same footprint, back of house operations, amenities, and in some cases even employees, they offer financial and operational synergies. Marriott’s triple-branded hotel (to include AC hotel, a Residence Inn and Spring Hill Suites) is slated to open in January 2019, and Tru by Hilton and Home2Suites plans to open by the second quarter of 2019.

- A second quarter groundbreaking is planned for The Printing House – A Tapestry Collection Hotel by Hilton to be located at Rutledge Hill by Indianapolis based developer, Sun Development and Management Corp. The development will sit on the former Johnstone Supply building at 501 Third Avenue South.

- Full financing is in place for the 14-story W Hotel which will have 346 rooms and open later in 2020. The hotel, which is a Marriott brand, will feature rooftop amenities and a pair of restaurants from a James Beard-award winning chef.

- Hyatt plans to open one of its upscale Centric hotels at 217 2nd Avenue South, and have 252 rooms, a 120-seat restaurant and another 4,000 SF of retail space.

- Charlotte-based Tara Investments group plans a Canopy by Hilton hotel at 910 Division Street, where Yazoo Brewing Co. taproom currently sits. The 10-story hotel will have 175 rooms at least, will have no less than 5,000 SF of meeting space and a rooftop bar. The development group would like to incorporate Yazoo tap room into the hotel design. Construction should begin in early 2020.
